

Extraordinary Elizabeth

On September 8th, mournful news suddenly came,

For our people, life would never be the same.

Our beloved Queen Elizabeth had sadly passed away,

After ninety six years she could no longer stay.

She was loving, beautiful, kind and helpful too,

In serving us for seventy years she stayed true.

The world paused on her funeral day,

Dejected crowds wept to hear marching bands play.

We must look forward, what will the future bring?

Now everyone is saying, 'Long Live the King!'
