

If I were a rockstar

If I were a rockstar I'd make thunder with my drum,

Being the loudest person would be lots of fun,

I would stay up late like the owls
in the trees,

Playing my guitar till my fingers freeze,

I'd be my own boss so I'd eat candy floss, crisps, burgers, hotdogs and chocolate of course.

I would travel around the world on my green and blue tour bus,

It will be messy inside but no one will make a fuss.

If I were a rockstar it would be really really cool,

and I would definitely go and play at school
