

Public Speaking

The audience were stunned into silence
Dedicated to make my mark
Eyes gazing at me with their full attention
Don't utter a word
We are the mighty oak, so we can be heard

Believe in yourself
Be as confident as a lion
As you approach the lectern
Conduct my words like a musician
The night is all about you. Don't give up.

Waves of thunderous applause
As I leave the stage
Hoping some day I can do this again
Be an inspiration to those in the audience.
