

Public Speaking

I'm sitting in the front row, my notes upon my lap
I'm waiting for my turn on the stage, after the next clap
I'm nervous and I'm anxious with all these people here
I'm hoping for a great response and at the end, a cheer!
That's it!, Its now! My time has come,
...and how my heart beats like a drum
I'm on the stage, standing tall, ready now to give it all
I look up from where I've just begun
To see my Daddy mouth the words...
Well done!
