

I am a mighty oak,

Being a mighty oak does not just mean being a public speaker,

It means standing up tall, being brave and proud.

I use my loud voice so people can hear me far and wide,

I use my eyes eagerly so I can look at you all,

When you step out into the unknown you are fearful but bold,

I hold my head up high so I can touch the sky.

I use my hand gestures and facial expressions, to show that I am brave and bold.

No more mumbling - I speak clearly!

~ by Benji

