

Public Speaking Poem

I'll write my speech on a page

I'll move my speaking space

I'll take the floor centre stage

And talk so clearly for my age.

I will be brave, I have a choice

To not speak quiet, to use my voice

I'll do good gestures

Divide my room into three

Stand tall for my teachers

They'll be so proud of me

by Amber - St Francis Catholic Primary School, Braintree

